

RETURNS SHOW LARGE INCREASE IN ORE EXTRACTED

QUARTERLY REPORT OF BULLION TAX COLLECTIONS MADE PUBLIC.

The sheriff's office yesterday turned over to County Auditor and Recorder Puddy Grimes the quarterly report of the state bullion tax collections as made by the first named official. The report, which will be sent on the state comptroller, is highly gratifying and shows that the activity in the different mining camps in this county continues unabated.

The report is for the quarter ending March 31st, and shows that the sum of $5,228.57 was paid over as the tax on the bullion. The total number of tons extracted by the different mines in Tonopah, Manhattan, Round Mountain and Rhyolite, amounts to 88,140 tons on which was received a net value on which the tax was levied, amounting to $159,643.45.

Not a mine in Tonopah, and the entire county as well, was operated at a loss during the quarter, and every one paid a bullion tax. As is usual the largest amount was paid by the Tonopah Mining company, while the Belmont was next in line. As a comparison to the last quarterly report, there were more than 6,424 tons of ore mined for the first three months of 1909. A greater part of this came from the Tonopah Extension, which only resumed operations last January.

CALENDAR IN DISTRICT COURT NEARLY CLEAN

JUDGE AVERILL MAKES REMARKABLE RECORD DURING TERM IN OFFICE.

When Judge Mark R. Averill assumed the duties of district judge a little over a year ago, he was greeted with a mass of unfinished work that would have made many people think twice before accepting the position.

There were cases on the calendar that had been there for several years and it looked like a superhuman task would have to result before things could be straightened out. The judge started in with a will and before many days was holding sessions at night. In fact court was in session nearly every night and the different attorneys who had cases on the calendar were told to get a hustle on and prepare for the hearings.

With the judge working about eighteen hours a day and the different attaches kept busy about the same amount of time, the cases began to disappear and yesterday, following the rendering of several decisions, but two undecided matters remain.

These are the Knock case and the Duckwater suit. The former case, which is a motion for a new trial, was submitted on April 4, while the Duckwater suit was submitted on May 9, on final brief by Attorney P. E. Keeler.

There are also two other cases before the court, which have not been finally submitted. One is the First National bank of Goldfield versus Nye county, which was delayed by the recent illness of Assistant District Attorney Jack H. Morris, and the other is the suit of the Fairview Round Mountain Mining company versus the Round Mountain Hydraulic Mining company, a contempt proceeding against the superintendent of the first named corporation, which has not reached the final stage.

Several of the late decisions rendered were in cases that were filed during the time that Judge J. P. O'Brien was on the bench and which were inherited by Judge Averill.

JUDGE AVERILL HANDS DOWN A FEW DECISIONS

CARLSON MINING AND MILLING CASES ARE FINALLY SETTLED.

Judge Mark R. Averill yesterday handed down several decisions in cases he had under advisement for some time and now the docket is nearly clean.

In the Hen case of Gilbert Rayburn versus the Carlson Mining and Milling company of Golden Arrow, and others, among them being the Lathrop Davis company and Lawrence Pont, judgment was awarded to Rayburn, who sued for wages for the amount of $370.58. Pont receives $375. The claims of Rayburn and Pont were established as superior to all others. The Lathrop Davis Mortgage was ordered foreclosed for the amount demanded. Gus Carlson was given judgment for the amount of his claim, which was $2,245, which is subordinate to all other claims.

In the matter of Rose versus Harris, judgment was awarded the defendant for about $1,800. This was the outcome of the Runnels business which at one time included the Mizpah Mercantile company and the Crystal Soda Water company.

A ruling was made on the demurrer and motion to strike out portions of the amended complaint in the case of John F. Davidson versus the Round Mountain Mining company. The demurrer was overruled and the motion to strike out part of the unimportant sections in the complaint granted.

COMET HAD A SERIOUS EFFECT ON FAIRY QUEEN

AWFUL CALAMITY IS AVERTED, BUT SUSPENSE WAS NERVE WRECKING.

All fairyland comes through the tail of the comet without incident or accident with the exception of her fairy majesty, the queen, who meets with a great and irreparable loss. It has saddened the entire community of fairies and it is only by dint of the great courage displayed by her royal highness that distressing results have been avoided.

It occurred in this wise: Some days ago the part of the queen was offered to the little miss who has filled the role most admirably up to the present time. She was told emphatically that if she did not speak distinctly she would have to give the part up. She flew to her mother and asked in anxiety:

"When will the show be, mamma?" Her mother replied that the date had nothing to do with her speaking plainly.

"Yes it does," came the reply. Pulling down the lower lip and placing her tongue behind one of the lower front teeth she gave it an alarming rocking. Evidently the tooth was all but out.

"If I lose that tooth I can't speak good." All present agreed and the race with time and a loose baby tooth and the presentation of the fairyland cantata began. Everything went well until the tail of Halley's comet was encountered. This overhead disturbance and the pressure of royal dignity in addition proved too much; the baby tooth succumbed and the queen appeared at rehearsal anxious and nervous and without the all important tooth.

Consternation prevailed and it was not until it was proven that things were not altogether hopeless that her majesty and her subjects were reassured.

If they do not receive unexpected back action work from the comet the matter will be safely adjusted by Saturday night and fairyland will be given in grand opera style at the Nevada theater.
